DSS Spotlight Employee

Lauren Giesler
Stockroom Associate

Lauren has been working in the DSS Stockroom at Chevron Science Center main site since September 7th. She graduated summa cum laude and with university honors in 2019 from West Virginia University where she also received the Outstanding Senior in Psychology Award. In February, Lauren will be going to graduate school at Monash University in Melbourne, Australia to pursue her PhD in neuroscience. After graduate school Lauren plans to begin a postdoc position with a continued focus in pre-clinical traumatic brain injury.

Lauren began helping out in the DSS stockroom after the COVID-19 pandemic delayed her move to Australia. Lauren has two dogs Wren and Phoebe.
